What is NLS?

For Male football players aged from U16 upwards competing in semi-professional football.

Players will have the opportunity to become part of SOKKR's talent programme. This enables players to attend weekly training and individual development with SOKKR's coaching team.

The aim is to provide development to players in addition to what they get with their clubs through group, small group, position specific and unit based sessions. Developing technical/tactical skills and knowledge whilst providing S&C development and nutritional guidance.
